SUBWAY® Restaurants

SUBWAY® Restaurants are partnering with Scholastic and the National Institutes of Health We Can!™ program to empower youth, families, schools, and communities to adopt healthy behaviors and a We Can! attitude. To this end, SUBWAY® Restaurants and Scholastic have created a contest called the SUBWAY FRESH FIT® Family All Star Challenge that will energize your kids to invent new ways to eat fresh, healthy food and to stay fit. The goal of the contest is to create a brand-new game that promotes good nutrition, an active lifestyle, and reduced screen time. We've provided the tools your kids will need to design new games that everyone will want to play. In the process, they will learn a lot about the basics of healthy eating and staying fit. The best game submissions will win great prizes for their school, including $5,000 worth of athletic equipment. In this way, we hope to recognize those who have embraced a SUBWAY FRESH FIT® lifestyle and who act as healthy role models to others. Let the games begin!
